Assistance offered by Kansas Insurance Department

Following is a statement from Ken Selzer, CPA, Kansas Commissioner of Insurance, regarding the severe weather impact last night in Greenwood County and surrounding areas:

“We at the Kansas Insurance Department (KID) are concerned by the impact of the severe weather in Greenwood and other Kansas counties last night. We know that many citizens and businesses have extensive property damage, especially in the city of Eureka, and that several people were injured. KID can assist those who need insurance information.

“Our Consumer Assistance Hotline number is 1-800-432-2484. We also have a Live Chat feature available on our website from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

“Our insurance department consumer assistance representatives are ready to help our fellow Kansans.”
