8. For purposes of an agreed order, the Commissioner is willing to grant a license that is limited so as to require that Applicant represent not more than one employing company or group of companies, with the supervision of a single management structure, for a minimum of one year.
9. Applicant understands his right to have a hearing on the facts and disposition and to seek review of any adverse order in this matter.
10. Applicant expressly waives hearing and stipulates that the misstatement on the application for a license constitutes sufficient legal grounds for denial of the license.
11. For purposes of an agreed order, Applicant stipulates that the Commissioner has jurisdiction of his person and the subject matter of this action.
12. For purposes of an agreed order, Applicant waives administrative and judicial review, including any appeal challenging the Commissioner's authority to place limitations on his license.
